JUMPIN'
BLUES AND JAZZ!

Hello!

The 251s are a Jump Blues & Jazz band, actively playing live across London and the south east.

They're ready to perform at your club, speakeasy,
retro / vintage festival or private event.

Contact details are on the last page.

Jump Blues and Jazz Band

Delivering exciting jump blues and sassy jazz rhythms from the moment they hit the stage, The 251s serve up the music and magic of a bygone era and give it a fresh, crisp edge all of their own.

There's down-home blues drawn from Mississippi, the urban sound of Chicago and the swinging jump blues dancehall numbers of the US west coast. With big, boisterous jazz favourites drawn from everywhere in-between, adding to The 251s' unique sound.

Ideal for small venues, intimate clubs, speakeasies, private & corporate bookings and retro / vintage music festivals. They are available to book complete with optional sound & light packages.

Fees are subject to application and agreement between venue owners, promoters and band management.

The 251s comprises:

Steve Tolton: Vocals and Harmonica

Russ Cottee: Guitar

Roy Webber: Drums and Vocals

Cliff MacDonald: Bass and Backing Vocals

Graham West: Saxophone and Backing Vocals

The band features a number of additional / supplementary artists on offer, subject to availability.
The band are represented by and all band material is © SBT Promotions 2024
